Entertainment for kids of all ages, oh and Mum and Dad too!

Fremantle Street Arts Festival

Easter Long Weekend– Saturday 3, Sunday 4 and Monday 5 April 2010

Australia's largest Street Arts Festival is now in its 12th year and Artistic Director Brendan Coleman has once again assembled an amazing cast of the best international, national and local street and cabaret performers. World class performances never before seen in Fremantle will appear at Healthway Smoke-free Pitches across the City.

Whilst all our shows are family friendly, special planning has been made for the 'littlies' – those small comedy lovers amongst us who squeal with delight as they allow the moment to totally take over and whose laughter always brings a smile to us 'biggies'.

We all love clowns, and this year we will have the chance to share the smiles and frowns of an award winning Clown from England – Fraser Hooper.

With a nod to the great silent clowns, his suitcase full of tricks and his large scale personality, Fraser uses mime, audience participation, comedy juggling and eccentric dance in a superbly funny piece of wordless theatre that will delight people of all ages.

It is classic clowning that is utterly absorbing and hilarious and has garnered Fraser not only awards but rave reviews in Korea, London, New Zealand and nearly every major European city.

Children also need to look out for a large Flowerpot and Leaky Tank. Normally storing water for human consumption, this Leaky Tank has a different idea. See their antics on the streets as they chase, race and dance their way through the H2O of life. What does a Flowerpot with a run away Leaky Tank do? See them on the streets of Fremantle and find out.

Add to that an extraordinary line-up of world class trapeze artists, dancers, magicians, musicians, jugglers, visual artists, whip crackers, unicyclists and comedians and you have a not to be missed Festival.

From Cicerello's to Little Creatures, Fremantle Markets, Sail & Anchor, Fremantle Prison, Old Shanghai, Woolstores and down the Cappuccino Strip, Fremantle will party from noon until late each day.

There will be more than 100 performances and it's all FREE!

Make sure you put the Easter weekend in your calendar so you don't miss Fremantle Street Arts Festival 2010!
